Programme Outcome

Today the Arabic language is the 5th most spoken language in the world. Arabic is one of the official language among the six official languages of the United Nations Organisation (U.N.O.).It is spoken by well over 400 million peoplespread across more than 24 countries of the world such as Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Egypt, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya ,Qatar, Palestine, Syria, United Arab Emirates, Yemen, Oman, Bahrain, Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia, Sudan, etc.

The scope of learning the Arabic language programme put the students in a better light of interacting and blending positively into the Arabic culture, relating easily with millions of Arabs across the globe. Students' abilities to understand and speak Arabic open doors to countless opportunities for students. Presently there is a lot of demand for Arabic language speakers. For instance many companies are on the lookout for Arabic speakers in the KPO, BPO, Aviation, Tourism ,sectors all over India. The reason is that most of the companies are involved in colossal business dealing with the Gulf region.

After learning Arabic Bachelor degree programme , students can work as a professional faculty, teacher, professor, researcher, tutor, trainer, translator,interpreter, proof reader, content writer either on Government or at any non government organizations. Arabic was introduced in Indian Civil Service Examination in 1963 for the first time and it became an optional subject to be taken at the preliminary stage of the test from there onwards.

Learning the Arabic language programme helps the students in their academic pursuits. By studying Arabic, students gain complete knowledge of reading formal classical as well as modern Arabic, which will undoubtedly assist students in their academic research and career. They can produce well written researched written works using appropriate evidence based arguments, logical structure, correct grammar and proper references. Our explicit objective is to promote higher education and learning in the field and with successive batches of students regularly attending the classes and completing the course, this target has been satisfactorily achieved by the department. Our students attend different universities and earn Master degrees in Arabic. Arabic is being taught in more than 50 universities like JNU, University of Delhi, BHU, Jamia Millia Islamia, Calcutta University, Mumbai University, Madras University, Bangalore University, Osmania University, Allahabad University, Lucknow University, Aliah University etc.

The Department is committed to the vision and mission of the college and takes care to teach students Arabic language and literature through Bachelor Degree Programme in Arabic language and literature in Maulana Azad College, Kolkata under University of Calcutta, Kolkata.
